| Name | Date |
|--|--|
| Instructor | Class time |
| Chapter 7: Caring bor | Infants and Toddlers |
| Beginning Reflections Read the following writing prompt. Then reco | ord your thoughts about how you view infants and |
| Which of the following is the primary way | you think about infants and toddlers? |
| • Babies are so cute and have such adora them. | ble antics. They deserve adults who delight in |
| • Babies are fragile and unable to care fo attention. | or themselves. They need constant care and |
| • Babies get into everything. They need a | adults to keep them safe. |
| • Babies are active explorers and natural learning experiences. | scientists. They deserve opportunities for rich |
| and toddler teacher, to reflect on your pred days with. How you think about your babi | at babies are true, it's useful for you, as an infant dominant view of the children you spend your ies and their ways in the world will determine how e space below to explain how you view infants and |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |